NEWS & MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Food Basket: On the first Sunday of each month, the Outreach Ministry of Kona UMC responds to the hunger issue in our community by collecting donations of canned food. Please speak to Jim & Sharon Skibby if you have any questions.

California-Pacific Annual Conference: With the theme of “I see a new church,” the 35th Annual Session of the California-Pacific Conference will take place from June 13-15 after pre-conference events on June 12. All appointed pastors and lay delegates of the local church are to attend.

Father’s Day (Sunday, 6/16): Pastor Vaeluaga (Vae) Eli from the University of Nations will share a special Father’s Day message with us on this day. Currently he is graciously co-leading the 6am Saturday morning prayer service with Pastor Sunny. Also, he supports the Samoan Language Worship/Bible Study on Thursdays at Kona UMC.

2019 KUMC Backpack Drive: This year our backpack drive is aimed at benefitting our KUMC children. Our aim is to provide a backpack for every youth and every keiki that is attending school this fall. Starting Sunday, June 23rd, we will collect backpacks at the Ministry Table. There will be a list of age groups along with the need of school supplies. The youth and older keiki would probably prefer more sophisticated looking backpacks, less cartoony designs.

The last day of collection will be Sunday, July 21st, when we will bless the collected backpacks before gifting our children. A monetary donation is welcome also. Please make a check payable to “KUMC” with a memo “Backpack Drive” and place it in the offering plate during the offering time. Please speak to Teri King if you have any questions.

Camp for Children and Youth: The Cal-Pac Camp, Retreat, and Discipleship Ministry Team brings two camps to the Big Island @ Makapala Retreat Center in Kapa’au as below:

- Elementary Camp (finished grades 2-5): June 16-20
- Middle School Camp (finished grades 6-8): June 16-20

The registration fee is $345. However, the Cal-Pac provides up to $200 per camper as a scholarship. The Cal-Pac is willing to provide more scholarship as needed. Please speak to Pastor Sunny if you would like to obtain more information.
